Feel free to us with any questions at drumpads24help+ios@gmail.com Your Drum Pads 24 Team This app is great for having a blast with music, the pillows are super responsive and the sounds feel crisp and clear. But since I'm an iPhone X owner the huge edges on top and bottom really bothers me, there's plenty of room for improvement and new features cus of the extra space. It will be great to see them being utilized Thanks for your feedback and reprimand, we will take that into account! Can you do that we can sing into it in another section and then do bass. In another section do the melody. I know? It's hard to explain, but I encourage you to try it as well as I describe it. Don't get me wrong: your app is great. But it could use some improvements. Thanks. I love you. @:- With love, Brianna Hello Brianna! Thank you so much for your support and idea, we will take it into account!:) Got my new 7 and now the sounds aren't working at all?
